

Abstract of Disclosure

[0062] A hot wax dispensing device designed to minimize the risk of cross contamination caused by "double dipping" into a community hot wax pot. This device receives bulk wax, melts the wax, allows the melted hot wax to collect in a bowl that is not directly accessible by a user. Hot wax is then dispensed in single client portions in a disposable insert for use in depilatory waxing.